1967 Milestones

The Harpeth Hall School • Nashville, Tennessee

"For every thing

there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven?"

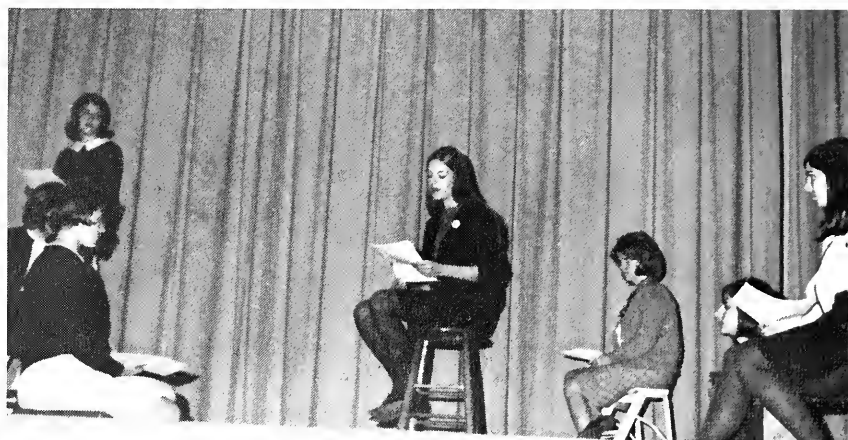

New names, bright name tags . . . decorations, costumes, panic . . . October hockey games . . . the bedlam of lunch

. . . trying to study in noisy rooms . . . deserted halls, jammed halls . . . midnight cramming . . . report card blues

. . . sitting outside on the first spring days . . . thousands of projects . . . sadness of the All-Club Picnic—knowing you'll never be a part again.

Knowledge flowing from one mind to another . . . frustration at not being able to comprehend . . . enlightenment when perceiving a new idea . . . a feeling of triumph in understanding what the greatest minds of the ages have thought.

Vote for one, please . . . a tap for honor . . . wake up for boys on Monday morning . . . the first place winner
's . . . we wish to welcome . . . and now another day has begun.

After work, a time to play—an opportunity to fight,
scheme, and sweat for that number one team of yours . . .
A time when lost seconds may bring defeat, and defeat, tears. But what ecstasy to win!

... and work goes hand in hand with play: the hours of preparation produce paint-smeared faces and blistered fingers, yet somehow you survive the crises and emerge glowing with pride at your accomplishment.

"A time to honor..."

MISS IDANELLE McMURRY

MISS PENELOPE MOUNTFORT

DEDICATION

The 1966-67 MILESTONES is dedicated to two outstanding members of the faculty: Miss Idanelle McMurry and Miss Penelope Mountfort.

During her four years with us Miss McMurry has devoted her time, her energy, and her unfailing spirit to make Harpeth Hall a school of both individuality and unity.

As sponsor of the Student Council and MILESTONES, Miss Penny spends much time helping direct Harpeth Hall life. But she is always happy to talk with a girl, whether it be in the capacity of a teacher, a counselor, or a friend.

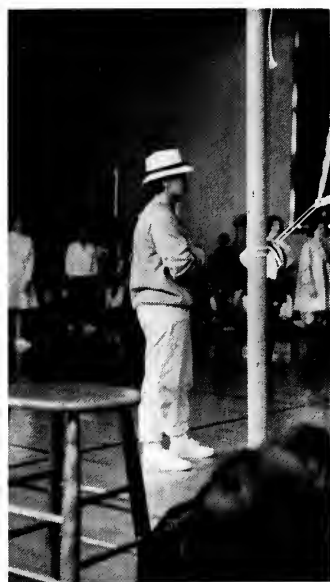

Working together, these dedicated educators not only represent the fine quality of teachers at Harpeth Hall but also carry the spirit of the school throughout their activities.

National Merit Scholarship Finalists

Commended Scholars

The Merit Scholarship Finalist awards and five Letters of Commendation were received from the Merit Scholarship Foundation by eight delighted girls this year. Each should indeed be proud since this award places her in the top one or two percent of the nation in scholastic achievement.

Seated: Diana Dorland. Standing: Libba Hutton, Corrie Charlton, Coco Dale, Edie Samuel.

Katie Wray Award

JODY NELSON

Jody Nelson was honored with the Katie Wray Award, given to the girl with the highest four-year scholastic average. Jody quietly and persistently pursued her challenging subjects at Harpeth Hall, absorbing knowledge and leaving behind many of her ideals to be remembered.

George Washington's Birthday

KIRK BOND
TISH SCOTT

• George Washington
• Martha Washington

Each year the Freshman Class elects two Juniors to represent George and Martha Washington. This year Kirk Bond as George and Tish Scott as Martha portrayed the first president and his lady with poise and grace.

Retiring Faculty

We say good-bye to our librarian, Mrs. Marshall, with real regret. Her genuine interest in each student's needs and her efforts to make the library an effective and beautiful building have enriched Harpeth Hall. We shall miss her help and her presence.

With faith in the future of the school and concern for quality education, Mrs. Mann joined the first faculty of Harpeth Hall. Her dynamic teaching and high standards have contributed greatly to the school's success. We bid farewell with a heartfelt thank you to Mrs. Mann.

Citizenship Bracelet

The Citizenship Bracelet was awarded this year to Jody Nelson, the girl who received the highest number of citizenship points during her four years here. Jody's kindness, quiet good humor, and reliability made her a natural choice for this award.

Katherine Beasley, Flower Girl; Melissa Burrus, Lady of the Hall; Gertrude Caldwell, Flower Girl.

Lady of the Hall and her Court

The traditional presentation of the Lady of the Hall and her Court preceded the performance of the Sophomore Play given in their honor. Melissa Burrus was chosen by the student body as Lady of the Hall, the girl who best represented the ideal Harpeth Hall student. During her four years at Harpeth Hall Melissa's friendliness and warmth have been welcomed and appreciated by everyone who knew her. She has shown her energy and enthusiasm in everything in which she has participated at Harpeth Hall. Because of the sincerity of her words and actions, Melissa is most deserving of this honor.

Kathy Williams, Senior Maid; Mary Margaret Crockett, Herald; Karen Vaughn, Freshman Maid; Shealia Phillips, Sophomore Maid; Lynda Bounds, Herald; Nancy Thorne, Junior Maid.

"A time to assemble..."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the backbone of Harpeth Hall. This year it was especially busy hanging parachutes for the Tea Dance, moving into the new conference room, and revising the rules and regulations. It also organized the A's Club picnic, a beautiful finale to an exciting year.

THE 1967 MILESTONES

The MILESTONES Staff for 1966-67 has endeavored this year to present an annual which will give a complete picture, typical of the school. We hope that the many hours of work which have gone into MILESTONES 1967 will help to preserve for you the memory of Harpeth Hall in the years to come.

Q. You mean there's no check-out line?

A. No, m'am! Not at McClure's. We believe check-out lines belong in supermarkets, not in department stores. We won't annoy you while you are shopping, but our competent salespeople can really be of help when you need it. In short—we treat people like customers . . . because we care.
